THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF URBAN DEVELOPMENT AND POVERTY ALLEVIATION (SHRI BANDARU DATTATREYA): (a) and (b) The Office of the erstwhile Chief Controller of Printing and Stationery was bifurcated in 1973 into three Departments viz, Directorate of Printing as an attached office and Government of India Stationery Office and the Department of Publication as subordinate offices. After trifurcation, the common cadre of certain posts continued to remain under the control of Directorate of Printing. This practice has been continuing till now.

(c) and (d) No, Sir. Due to some administrative reasons it was felt that formal appointment order may be issued by the Department of Publication in one individual case in 1986. However, for all purposes, Director of Printing continues to be the cadre controlling authority in the case of Assistant Manager (Administration) in Govt, of India Presses and Assistant Controller (Publication) in the Department of Publication. The officers posted in the Government of India Presses are designated as Assistant Manager (Administrative) whereas those posted in the Department of Publication are designated as Assistant Controller (Publication).
